The following is an excerpt from the Garbage Collection Regulation Bylaw No. 138, 2015:

- (1) Garbage Containers - all garbage of an owner or occupier of a premises shall be contained in a garbage container:
- (a) constructed of galvanized iron, steel, or rigid plastic; and
 - (b) tapered so that the top is larger than the bottom; and
 - (c) having a height not greater than 1 meter; and
 - (d) equipped with lifting handles; and
 - (e) covered with a water shedding cover or lid; or
 - (f) which may be a securely tied disposable plastic bag having a minimum thickness of 1.5 mm in place of (a) through (e) above; and
 - (g) which, when combined with the weight of the Garbage shall not exceed 22 kilograms.
- (2) Number of Garbage Containers permitted shall be two (2).
- (3) Unacceptable Garbage Container Waste:
- (a) an explosive substance; or
 - (b) animal excretion unless contained in a sealed disposal container; or
 - (c) liquids; or
 - (d) ashes; or
 - (e) any item which exceeds the capacity of the garbage container; or
 - (f) wet or saturated garbage, unless it is contained in a sealed, water-tight container prior to being placed in a garbage container; or
 - (g) any substance prescribed under the "Special Waste Regulation" or the "Ozone Depleting Substances Regulation" pursuant to the Waste Management Act.

We are very sorry to say goodbye to Katrina Leckovic, Chief Administrative Officer. We appreciate everything that Katrina has done for the community and we wish her all the best in her new endeavors.

WELLS LIBRARY

News from your library

The Wells Library has something for everyone. There are kid's books, young adult books, fiction, nonfiction and so much more.

Every month we get the top ten fiction paperback bestsellers and other books that we have ordered. We also have an assortment of magazines for many tastes. New subscriptions that have arrived include Canadian Geographic, Today's Parent, Canada's History Magazine (formerly The Beaver), Threads, Our Canada, Walrus-Canada, as well as continuing subscriptions to McLeans, Reader's Digest, Canadian Living, Consumer Reports and British Columbia Magazine. Soon to be arriving are Artists Magazine, Canoe & Kayak Magazine, Scientific American Magazine, SkiTrax & Pedal Magazine, Quiltmaker and Ski Canada Magazine.

We have recently received the following books: Raspberry Pi Idiot's Guide for computer enthusiasts, British Columbia's North: how to build your business, respect communities and prosper by Dr. Charles Jago, Emily Carr in England about the time she spent in England and the recent exhibition of her work in that country, and two new children's graphic novels called Binky – License to Scratch and Big Star Otto. We have also received Season One of the TV series Outlander on DVD. Outlander is based on the Diana Gabaldon novels.

Hearing the hype about the Oscar nominated movie The Revenant? The movie is based on a book – we have it.

Remember, the Library is open Mondays & Tuesdays 6:30pm-9:00pm and Wednesdays and Saturdays 1:00-4:30 pm.

Wells Recycling Depot

Winter Hours:

Saturday & Sunday

11:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Come on by with your paper, plastic, glass and metal recyclables.

Reminder: EVERY WEDNESDAY, regardless if it has snowed or not, all cars must be removed from the streets of Wells to allow Emcon to do a thorough clearing of the streets.

Please help out by reminding your neighbours to move their car if they appear to have forgotten.

It is very important that ALL CARS are removed from the street on Wednesdays or the street may not get cleared.

Thank you from the District of Wells
